New Shopping Center Addresses Traffic Congestion Problem

MENIFEE-Some Menifee residents have waited years for more restaurants and large retailers to settle in town, and the opening of Red Robin and several big-box stores, including Southwest County's first Super Target, has brought shoppers streaming into the new 68-acre Countryside Marketplace - but not the heavy traffic congestion.

The long-awaited center brought more waiting for some, as traffic backed up onto Newport Road when a left-turn lane became overloaded with cars heading onto Haun Road to access the new center.

Menifee's city manager said he anticipated heavy traffic at that spot and has been working with the county and the developer to speed up the remaining roadwork there and to see what can be done in the meantime.

Super Target Opening Exceeds Expectations

MENIFEE-Southwest County's first Super Target opened in Menifee, drawing larger crowds than expected.

Plenty of people have made their way to the store since its "soft opening" October 10th. The store was brimming with customers over the weekend - its official opening was October 12th - and the parking lot along Haun Road was already packed.

While declining to give specific numbers, store manager Sandi Nellor said they are doing 50 percent more business than expected in original estimates.

The 179,000-square-foot store has plenty to offer patrons and, this being a Super Target, the selection includes a full grocery section complete with meat and produce. That has
